GREETINGS WERE READ OUT FROM NORMAN BANFIELD, ACTING CHAIRMAN FIP AEROPHILATELIC COMMISSION

GREETINGS!

Firstly I regret not being with you today. However, Chris will deliver my Powerpoint presentation on the new Aerophilately Guidelines. They have been approved by the FIP Board and are on the Aerophilately Commission website - I hope you will find the presentation useful.

*It is good to see Aerophilately exhibits at exhibitions this year -
- LONDON 2022 - 32 multi-frame exhibits with 5 Large Gold and 7 Gold
- HELVETIA 2022 - 27 exhibits with 1 Large Gold and 8 Gold.
For CAPEX 2022 - 31 exhibits.*

It is also good to see airmail stamps and stationery being exhibited in the Aerophilately class.

To Canadian Aerophilatelic Society members - keep up the good work - Canada has a rich airmail history and your journal is first class.

My Good Wishes for a successful meeting and exhibition. I still have fond memories of CAPEX'96 in Toronto.

*Norman Banfield
Acting Chairman, FIP Aerophilately Commission.*

BUSINESS

Mark Banchik has offered to fill the vacant position of “Representative for the Americas” on the commission.

PRESENTATION

The PowerPoint presentation on “Aerophilately: New Guidelines – Exhibiting & Judging” by Norman Banfield was shown and discussed. - Mark Banchik, Doug Lingard and Mike Street, who are all experienced National Level judges, were encouraged to comment on the new guidelines, the difference between the International and North American guidelines for exhibiting, and on exhibiting in general.

MANY THANKS TO CHARLES LIVERMORE FOR MAKING THE ZOOM ARRANGEMENTS.

THE MEETING ENDED AT 1 PM
